

Love One Another

John 13:31-35

Real love, however, is making a perfect commitment to an imperfect person.

I know God will take care of me and love me. But right now, Daddy, I want someone with skin on to love me.

How far will we go to help someone in need?

This is how He showed His love for us. How will we show our love for each other? How will we be God's love with skin on?

How did He love us and all people? Did He look down from the glory of heaven and merely say: I feel your pain. Be patient, work hard, spend carefully, I wish you well and then leave us alone?

As Christians, will we comfort those who are hurting through the loss of a loved one, or a job, or their home? Will we encourage those who are struggling with health issues or rebelling children?

Will we put our faith into action?

Mrs. Madison exclaimed, Power over people. I have none. I desire none. I merely love everyone.
