

AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER?

Genesis 2:8-9

June 27, 2010

Some say we must love all people all the time. Others that they will love those who love them. Yet others, they will love only those they know or those who prove worthy of love.

When we see someone in need, and all the cars and people passing by seemingly paying no attention, how often do we find ourselves asking or saying: Why doesn't someone stop to help?

If we really are our brother or sister's keeper, will we not make the time to care for them?

What does not change is that we are to care for one another. Our involvement can really make a difference.

The world is hungry for the touch of someone who cares -- who really cares!

The question is not, Should I be my brother's keeper?, but rather, more to the point, Am I my brother's keeper?
